

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT COURSES

Organising courses

Courses are proposed by scholars from member institutions, by members of the Council and Executive Committee, or by the Director General. The Executive Committee will also consider suggestions made by scholars whose home institutions are not members of the Centre. The programme of courses is approved by the Executive Committee.

Courses are organised by Course Directors, normally those suggested by the proposers and approved by the Executive Committee (or the Director General acting for it). Each course should have at least two Directors from different countries. Course Directors invite Lecturers (Resource Persons) from other Universities and Institutions on the basis of their expertise and international scholarly standing.

languages may be chosen. The major language to be used in any course will be indicated by the language in which the title of the course is announced.

Enquiries about courses and participation should be addressed to the Secretariat of the IUC or to one of the course directors.

For further information please contact the IUC Secretariat in Dubrovnik.
